Suffolk Historic Churches Trust (SHCT)- Jubilee grants announced

Last year the SHCT awarded grants from a Jubilee Fund for projects as tributes to the Queen's remarkable 70-year reign. Grants totalling £170,000 were awarded to 52 churches across Suffolk, and they have used the money in creative ways to honour Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

The applications were many and varied, for example, in Mendlesham a noticeboard has been erected outside the church, in Hitcham carved wooden pew ends have been created, in Elmswell a seat is now outside the church, the organ at Acton is repaired and in Great Ashfield new wooden chairs for the clergy have been installed. For further details click here.

Chairman of SHCT, John Devaux, commented "The Trust is thrilled that Jubilee projects for which it awarded grants are now coming to fruition. Her Late Majesty was Patron of the National Churches Trust and I'm sure she would have been delighted to see so many projects being realised in her name in Suffolk. We very much look forward to visiting some of the churches to admire what has been achieved."

SHCT continue to award grants towards church building projects, four times a year. Details are on the Trust website www.shct.org.uk

News from Kagera from Chris and Anji Dawkins - Kagera Link Co-ordinators

"It's been a very quiet week here as, apart from the three English students, all others have gone home for a week's break as have the staff. Bishop Darlington and several colleagues are also away in Karagwe for a mission. It's given us some time for reflection.

Here in this stunningly beautiful environment, no-one comments on the sights and sounds around them. But the surroundings are just a backdrop and when you have to work out how to scratch a living on a shamba, with poor rains, balance tending the land or your goat with collecting water or sticks for fuel, work out how to feed and educate your children, then perhaps the backdrop isn't really important. Everyday living just looks so hard. And then on Sundays we see the joy, the thankfulness, the praise, the giving.

Sunday's service was at Samson's church and it turned out to be another marathon. As well as the thanksgivings, described in great detail, there were five infant baptisms, a blessing of rings for couples who had lost them, and then a blessing of all marriages. At the end of the service, a celebration cake was unveiled, and everyone was invited up to share. The custom is for people to skewer small pieces of cake on a toothpick and then feed them to each other!"

Kagera Evening

Follow the Star: Join the Song

Follow the Star: Join the Song – highlights how singing can help draw us closer to God and each other through the journey from Advent to Epiphany. In the story of the first Christmas, the shepherds are astonished to find the night sky filled with countless voices singing God's praise. One of the key elements of the Join the Song campaign is to invite choirs and singing groups of all ages to learn and sing a new version of The First Nowell. Find out more here. All the free downloads are on www.achurchnearyou.com, Resource Hub which now includes the downloadable music tracks to help choirs of all ages and stages learn and perform the carol. In addition the hub has logos, poster templates, social media graphics, more music tracks, web banners and more.

Christmas Market at St Edmundsbury Cathedral

St Edmundsbury Cathedral will once again welcome all to their Christmas Market from Thursday 23 November to Saturday 25 November. Doors will open from 10.00am – 4.30pm each day.

A variety of stallholders from Suffolk and beyond will join to showcase their products, with some familiar faces as well as new businesses. There will be over 50 stalls and this year the market will also flow through the Cathedral Cloisters to provide an even larger shopping experience. In addition to the shopping experience, there will be daily entertainment for visitors from local schools, and the Haverhill Silver Band will join the festivities on Saturday 25 November.

Special Tower Tours will also be running during the Christmas Market. Tower Tours will be available to pre-book via stedscathedral.org/tower-tours and are available 11.00am on Thursday and Friday and 10.30am on Saturday.

We invite you to watch this new Lightwave video focused on the Bungay Lightwave Hub, led by the Revd Edward Land, Lead Minister, and Heather Land, Lay Pioneer.

An Adventurous Advent

Saturday 28 October, 9.00am - 12.30pm
Salvation Army Hall, Violet Hill Road, Stowmarket IP14 1NE

An invitation to all Readers, Licensed Lay Ministers, Elders and those in training - do join us as Mark Oakley leads us in preparation for An Adventurous Advent. The language of hope, promise and waiting is not evident in today's culture and our communities embrace Christmas at the beginning of December with the switching on of town lights and Christmas carol services throughout the month. The season of Advent, with its four weeks of waiting, is counter-cultural. To find out more and book your place on this event, please click here.

Drawing near to God in Advent: prayer, postures and practices

Tuesday 28 November 7.00pm - 8.30pm, online

Bishop Mike will lead four Zoom sessions through Advent looking at aspects of prayer (e.g. praise, intercession...), Christian postures (e.g. peace, joy...) and associated practices to help us grow closer to God over Advent. These will run on Tuesday 28 November | Tuesday 5 December | Thursday 14 December and Tuesday 19 December. There will be plenty of time for questions and discussion. All are very welcome! Book here.

Notices

World Mission Conference: Thank you to everyone who came along to the World Mission Conference last Saturday. The conference was opened by Bishop Mike with an act of worship centred around the theme of the conference 'Ethical Consumerism'. Sarah Brazier, Fairtrade Foundation, explained the reasons why we should buy Fairtrade Goods and the very real difference we can make to people's lives. Ruth Lindley, Transform Trade (used to be Traidcraft Exchange) talked about a campaign to improve conditions in the clothing industry, offering thought provoking actions consumers can take. Finally, Andrew Robinson, CCLA, talked about investing money to be an agent of change for the better socially and environmentally. All three speakers were very engaging and excellent. Fairtrade coffee, tea, biscuits and cakes were supplied by Christine Stainer.

Anti-slavery Day - Wednesday 18 October: St Edmundsbury Cathedral tower will be lit in red to mark the day. In Ipswich there will be information stalls at: Triangle Church, 38, Dickens' Road IP2 0JW, 9.00am and 11.00am and UoS Student's Union, Waterfront Building, Neptune Quay, IP4 1QJ. The number of people identified as victims of modern slavery in the UK has been rising year on year, with over 12,000 people referred to the authorities in 2021. To find out more visit <https://theclewerinitiative.org/> and www.antislavery.org/slavery-today/slavery-uk/. If you would like to become part of a Diocesan group raising awareness of Modern Day Slavery then please email the Revd Richard Stainer, World Development Adviser.

Avocado plant looking for a new home: Bishop Martin is looking for a warm home for the 2.5m potted avocado tree from Kagera that he has nurtured the past four years. It no longer fits in his house and over the Winter it mustn't fall below 10 degrees at night, so he is looking for a tall warm greenhouse or similar space, or else he will have to cut the top off. If anyone can help, please get in touch with the Bishop's Office on 01473 252829.

Contactless giving: the Parish Resources Team have a Collectin contactless device available to lend out to parishes for a 2/3-week period (to be negotiated). This gives you the chance to try before you buy or to use it for a special event you have coming up. Contact Emma Denton 07483 006379 to book. Find out more about contactless donation devices here and online giving here.
