Host a 'Generosity Week.' in your church

The Church of England's Giving Team have produced a new series of week-long resources (Sunday to Sunday) to encourage people to live generously.

A core part of the material is eight daily podcast reflections exploring generosity in the Bible through a verse of scripture followed by a reflection by a range of contributors from across the country. Contributors include Bishop Rose Hudson-Wilkin, Bishop Guli Francis-Dehqani, the Revd Harry Steele, Rachel Mander, Phil and Dani Knox, Fr Paul Thomas, Hazel Lynch and Robin Peake.

Generosity Week can be adapted for all traditions of The Church of England and all the materials are free and available to download from Parish Resources.

Raising funds in All Saints', Rede

As with so many churches, All Saints', Rede is facing some extremely tough challenges due to Covid-19, with all 2020 fundraising opportunities cancelled and the on-going impact into 2021 impossible to gauge.

In an endeavour to be creative and come up with something that might help, Freddie the Border Terrier hatched up a plan to walk to 50 churches during October (appropriately wearing his dog collar!), all within 12 or so miles of All Saints', Rede. He did this by grouping the 50 churches into 12 separate cross-country public footpath walks and had many happy hours 'pawing' over OS Maps to find the paths that would link the churches in the best possible way.

To make this a fundraising adventure, Freddie started looking for sponsorship and set up a Just Giving page, he sent out over 80 emails, far and wide, keeping his paws firmly crossed for some response.

Freddie did his first walk on Thursday 1 October and reached his target of visiting the 50 churches on Friday 23 October. He covered just under 70 miles, so it was probably a good thing he didn't work that out before he started! Despite this, his legs seem no shorter than at the outset, but the one thing that is certain is that he now has more energy than ever. His followers are not quite so sure they feel the same!

Freddie has had the most extraordinary support and thanks to the generosity of so many he has raised an astounding £1,860 with donations still coming in. You can imagine the huge difference this will make to All Saints'.

Never one to miss an opportunity, Freddie asks that if anyone feels inspired to support him by making a donation they should go to his Just Giving page.

If anyone would like to know more about the walks please do let Freddie know by e-mailing simonpratten@outlook.com and he would also be very happy to supply individual maps of any of the walks, for a small donation of course!

The Last Things - Advent series with Bishop Mike

Tuesdays 7.30 – 9.00pm
By Zoom

This four-part Advent series will look at themes of death, judgement, heaven and hell. Advent has traditionally been a season associated with awaiting Jesus Christ's coming again "in glory to judge the living and the dead". While the traditional scripture readings have preserved this emphasis and with it a focus on the 'last things' - death, judgement, heaven and hell - there has in recent times been little reflection on such themes, with the ever increasing stress on Christmas and preparations for Christmas tending to overshadow Advent. These sessions are ideal for individuals or Advent study groups. Free of charge, but please register for each session on Eventbrite:
