News from the Diocese

Dear colleagues

I can honestly say that I have never known a start of term like this one. I think the first week of term was the hardest I can recall. I am so grateful to Headteachers for moving so quickly and effectively to remote learning for most pupils and opening for vulnerable children and critical workers' children, and in such numbers. Whilst, on average, 20% of primary pupils in Suffolk are in school, in some schools this is, of course, much higher.

Whilst challenging, of course, we have hope. Testing kits and laptops have been arriving in schools and we now know that schools will not be required to open in February half-term. With vaccinations on their way, and a promise of two weeks' notice of full re-opening, although not before 8 March, let us hope that better days lie ahead.

It has been good to see a number of heads at our heads' forums, where you can share information about how things are going and know that you are not alone. Please see some of the resources which heads have kindly shared:

- Remote Learning via PlayStation 4 or Xbox One
- connectED for Teachers by Teachers - Spring term 2021
- How to Add Audio \(Narration\) for Selected PowerPoint Slides

It was good to see so many Chairs of governors on 27 January, too, to share ideas. It is very good to have Sue Todd join us this term as Deputy DDE. We are here to support you and at the end of a phone and can raise issues with Suffolk County Council and the DfE. I hope you are finding Gemma's resources on collective worship useful. This half-term's theme is endurance, which seems appropriate! May I commend the Church of England's Faith at Home resources including collective worship resources. Gemma has also highlighted resources for Lent and Easter and developed a new Facebook page for those who have purchased the Emmanuel Project.

A key priority remains supporting Headteachers' wellbeing. The Church of England Foundation for Educational Leadership produces fortnightly podcasts which we are sending to schools and we would encourage everyone to sign up to receive these direct. A recent podcast featured an interview with Dr Kate Middleton, of the Mind and Soul Foundation, exploring how we can manage our own mental wellbeing as well as that of our staff and students.

Please do pass on our thanks and good wishes to all staff for all their hard work. It is very much appreciated.

With all good wishes from all the team,

Jane Sheat

St Gregory CEVC Primary School, Christmas 2020

Congratulations to pupils and staff at St Gregory CEVC School, Sudbury whose wonderful Lockdown Nativity at the end of last term has received almost 2,000 hits on Youtube. The nativity had been featured on ITV News (as mentioned in our last newsletter) and also in the Daily Telegraph. The nativity was made available online, as a Christmas gift, in the hope that it would be shared with as many people as possible, particularly those who would not see a Nativity as they normally would at their church. The Revd Kate Bottley tweeted: If you're missing going to a Nativity this year, these beautiful humans welcome you to theirs. To see the video, please click here. If you missed the ITV News feature, please click here and then click on the video.

Congratulations to pupils at Barrow CEVC School who contributed prayers and readings to the All Saints Church Candlemass Service as part of Growing Younger Sunday.

Congratulations to all pupils at Kelsale CEVC School and Mr Moss who put together a Christmas song for The Pink Orange charity and raised well over the target of £200. The song entitled "I'll find a way to make you smile this Christmas" was featured in the EADT and on Radio Suffolk. Please click here for more on this wonderful story.

Pupils from Kelsale CEVC School also contributed to the Growing Younger Sunday service at St John's Saxmundham by sending a video talking about why being a church school is important to them and how everyone at the school lives out the school vision and values.

A Prayer for School Leaders

Loving God,
We are so thankful we can come to you.
Right now, we need your help,
To see us through these difficult times.

In our challenges, we need your security.
In our striving, we need your wisdom.
In our questioning, we need your guidance.
In our searching, we need your truth.

In our uncertainty, we need your answers.
In our anxiety, we need your peace.
In our frustration, we need your understanding.
In our fear, we need your love.

In our anger, we need your mercy.
In our weariness, we need your strength.
In our grief, we need your comfort.
In our darkness, we need your light.

We pray for moments of connection,
Relief, grace and even joy to come,
Trusting in your faithfulness,
Holding on to hope.

Walk with us, each day, we pray,
Today and evermore.
Amen
